Set Aside Clinics

If you have an Arizona conviction on your criminal record, you may qualify to set aside your convictions and restore your civil rights. You may be able to remove barriers to: Employment, Housing, and Voting.

To find out if you are eligible for direct representation, please apply for services:

CALL: (602) 258-3434 (M-F 8am-2pm)

In person at: CLS Main Office, 305 S. 2nd Avenue, Phoenix, AZ, 85003
(M-F 8am-5pm) additional locations listed on our website

Online: Apply online at www.azlawhelp.org/accesstojustice

Make the following selections when prompted

- When asked in what area of law you are in need of assistance, choose: "EMPLOYMENT"
- When asked if it is a criminal problem, choose: "NO"
- When asked what type of employment problem, choose: "WAGE"

NOTICE

Your felony cannot be expunged, sealed, or deleted. Not all convictions can be set aside. If you have a sexually motivated crime and/or your crime requires registration, you will not qualify for a set aside.
